

I strongly support strong title ii style net neutrality. Chairman Ajit Pai should be ashamed at what he's doing as it clearly only benefits large corporations who will then abuse consumers and small businesses. This proposal stifles communication and access to information for all Americans. There's nothing American about the plan the chairman has.